Entered as second-class matter September 30, 1904, at the Postoffice at Campbell, California, under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

IT is evident that the Interurban Railway Company is going to pass Campbell by as far as the "short line" is concerned. What will our business men do in the matter? Can the town stand being sidetracked on a "spur"? Are we content to take another backward step? Isn't it about time we woke up?

Now that Foote avenue has quite a number of dwellings upon it, it would be perfectly in order for the residents living thereon to petition the Board of Supervisors to accept that avenue and take care of it, by sprinkling, etc. It may be news to many to find out that Foote avenue was never accepted, for the reason that Major H. S. Foote did not want it accepted at the time he cut the road through, for reasons no longer holding. These same petitioners might also ask the Supervisors to instruct R. K. Thomas to reopen the alley running from Foote avenue to the railroad which used to exist immediately south of Mrs. Thompson's property, but which he has since closed up by the moving of a building upon same and the piling of lumber there. This has resulted in great damage to Mrs. Thompson's property, both as to an extra hazardous fire risk and the depreciation of her property on account of being hemmed in in such a manner. It is up to the property owners on that avenue to have these matters remedied.

JUDGE OGDEN of the Superior Court of Alameda county has just rendered a decision in the test case regarding the raise in salary voted to the various county deputies by the last Legislature, which is of interest to a number of the office holders in this county. The Alameda court has decided that deputies are officers, and that therefore they are entitled to the increases allowed them as officers by the Legislature. The court also finds that an increase for the deputies is not an increase for the principal, where the principal is paid a fixed salary. In this county the clerks of Justice Brown's and Justice Wallace's courts in San Jose, the deputy surveyors, deputy district attorneys and some of the deputy sheriffs will be given a considerable increase. The salaries in the Sheriff's office will be paid as follows: Sheriff, $4000 per year; under-sheriff, $150 per month; deputy sheriffs, $100 per month, and matron $75 per month. The Sheriff by the new bill is given $400 a year more salary than any other county officer on account of the hazardous position which he occupies, which seems to be but just.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS.

High School and Grammar School Trustees Elected.

The Campbell grammar school election proved to be interesting, a somewhat spirited contest developing as election day arrived. Mr. Curry did not want a re-election, and the only candidates were A. K. Joy and W. L. Dowton. Mr. Joy got over the tape first with a vote of 52 to his opponent's 22.

There was no high school trustee to elect.

In Cambrian district Frank E. Duncan was re-elected without opposition.

There was no high school trustee to be elected.

In Hamilton an exciting contest took place for the grammar school trustee. J. D. Hanscom was up for re-election, but Herbert A. Butts beat him out, and in this defeated the brickyard element. The vote was 49 for Butts; 26 for Hanscom.

For high school trustee David R. Pender was re-elected, receiving 49 votes to E. Macy's 26. Mr. Macy is a good friend of the high school and if he had been fortunate enough to have been elected would have made a good trustee.

In San Tomas district Mr. Thompson was re-elected grammar school trustee.

Mr. Carrell did not desire to be re-elected high school trustee, and Marshall Ross was elected without opposition—in fact he was elected without his consent.

Funeral of Late V. M. Ayres.

The funeral of the late Vincent M. Ayres was held on Monday afternoon at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Whitman, the services being conducted by Rev. W. F. Harper, pastor of the First Baptist Church of San Jose, of which deceased was a prominent member. Rev. Mr. Harper was assisted in the services by Evangelist Ray Palmer, and the life and character of Mr. Ayres were fittingly dwelt upon.

The music was appropriate to the occasion and the floral offerings were many and beautiful.

The Interurban Stations.

The Interurban waiting stations constructed along the Interurban railway are a convenience, and should be kept in a neat manner. The citizens at the corner of Campbell and Johnson avenues have set a good example in this regard by having the ground surrounding the station put in good order. Now if there was a way of getting rid of the vandals which persist in defacing such places, the railroad company would be encouraged to a more liberal building of the waiting stations. The Southern Pacific Company's plan of a liberal coat of paint and sand is about the only remedy—unless it be a few arrests, with good, stiff fines. Stangers passing by—and there are very many—form a pretty correct opinion of our people by these seemingly little things, but which in reality are very important.

What kind of an impression on the minds of strangers do you think is made by the scenes surrounding the Campbell waiting station, for instance? Mr. E. E. Phelps has the thanks of the Sunnyside Tract people for the removal of the station and for the generous supply of gravel placed around same.

Shaver-Ousley Wedding.

On Easter Sunday afternoon, March 30th, a quiet wedding was solemnized at the Campbell Methodist Episcopal parsonage, Mr. George W. Ousley and Miss Gertrude E. Shaver being the contracting parties, Rev. A. H. Needham officiating.

The bride is the accomplished daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Shaver of Rincon avenue and she has a wide circle of friends both here and in San Jose who wish her much joy in her wedded life. The groom is well and most favorably known in San Jose, where he has resided for many years.

At the wedding ceremony there were present the father, mother and brother of the bride and the Misses Tillie Hayes and Cora Rodeck.

The happy couple will make their future home in San Francisco.

The Epworth League gave a social Monday night at the home of the Misses Archibald, on Cypress avenue. The company was amused with games suited to the day (April 1), and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present.

B. Betts, of Union avenue, is entertaining quite a house party of relatives, W. J. Sheldon and daughter of Palo Alto, and Oliver Maxon of Los Angeles being the guests. Mr. Maxon has recently returned from an extended trip abroad that included both Europe and the Philippines.

A new ruling has been issued by the Postoffice Department which requires postmasters to notify box renters ten days befor the end of the quarter that box rent is due, and the boxes not paid for by the first of the month must be locked. Heretofore the Department has allowed about ten days beyond the first of the month.

The Southern Pacific railroad construction crew have been at work the past week rebuilding the Almaden trestle south of town. A pile-driver is busily at work sinking new piles in the place where the others were recently washed away. As the remainder of the bridge is practically unhurt it will not take very long to put the bridge in good shape again—probably one more week.

A rail fence has been built in front of the washed away lots at the bridge, to protect people from falling over the high enbankment. The large olive trees which were anchored along the bank to save it from further washing came from the roadway in front of F. W. Smith's place on the Santa Clara road, he believing that the olive trees were a detriment on account of drawing birds to his orchard, which destroys the fruit.

A cinder path is being prepared on the high school grounds, as well as a six-lap track, and this, when completed will furnish the athletes of the schools one of the best track fields in the county.

At a recent meeting of the Board of Supervisors the County Surveyor was instructed to prepare plans for a new cement bridge over the Los Gatos creek on Hamilton avenue. As this bridge was destroyed by the recent flood, it will be necessary to have the new bridge built very soon in order to accommodate the travel over that thoroughfare. The old wooden bridge which has long stood there, was in bad condition and our people will welcome a new and modern cement structure.

We understand Mrs. Edith Barker, wife of Deputy Assessor E. A. Barker, is sick with scarlet fever at their home on Central avenue. The home is quarentined, Mr. Barker being with his wife.
